CFNJ CENTER FOR BUSINESS PHILANTHROPY

From small businesses to major corporations, New Jersey's companies have played an invaluable role in our State's philanthropic heritage. These businesses drive change at the community level, proactively partner with effective nonprofits, and keep a close eye on results throughout.

The Community Foundation's Center for Business Philanthropy works with businesses large and small to help set up and/or manage their philanthropy programs. Services run the gamut from grantmaking support to financial compliance.

Above all, we make sure that a company's philanthropy program is effective, cost efficient, and in keeping with the company's own values and priorities.
